

Dear Chair Michael Powell,

As a citizen, I am deeply opposed to the efforts to relax rules to allow greater consolidation of media. The airwaves belong to the people. To allow a few corporations to dominate public discourse is not in the best interests of our democracy.

I urge you to reconsider your position. At least postpone the rule change until more time for public discussion has passed on such an important matter.

-Paul Linhardt